Memorandum Circular No. 63-A Series of 1994

TO : All Concerned Licensed Agencies/Entities Qualified To Deploy Filipino Household Workers Abroad

SUBJECT : Model Employment Contract For Filipino Household Workers

In view of the implementation of the household workers program, a new model employment contract for Filipino household workers has been formulated and approved by the Administration.

The model employment contract, which provides for the minimum terms and conditions for the employment of Filipino household workers, shall not prejudice the adoption of employment contracts of host countries that grant superior conditions of work and package of benefits over and above those cited in the model contract.

The "Model Employment Contract for Filipino Household Workers" is hereby attached as annex.

This Circular supersedes Memorandum Circular No. 59, Series of 1991 on Model Employment Contract for Filipino Domestic Helpers.

The worker shall shoulder the repatriation expenses.
   b. Termination by the Worker: 1) Termination without just cause: the worker may terminate the contract without just cause by serving a written notice to the employer at least one month in advance. Without such notice, the worker shall shoulder her/his return transportation. 2) Termination for a just cause: the worker may also terminate the contract without serving any notice to the employer for any of the following just causes: when the worker is maltreated by the employer or any member of his household; when the employer violates the terms and conditions of this contract; when the Employer commits any of the following acts - deliberate non-payment of salary, physical molestation and physical assault; unsanitary living conditions, inadequate food and food provisions, deliberate and habitual denial by the employer of the one day a week vacation leave to which the household worker is lawfully entitled; and multiple employers other than stated in the contract. The employer shall pay for the repatriation expenses.
   c. Termination due to illness. Either party may terminate the contract on the grounds of illness, disease or injury suffered by the worker, where the latter's continued employment is prohibited by law or is prejudicial to his/her health as well as to the health of the employer and his household. The repatriation expenses shall be shouldered by the employer.

13. Settlement of Disputes. In case of dispute between the worker and the employer, the matter must be referred by either party to the Philippine Embassy who shall endeavor to settle the issue amicably to the best interest of both parties. If the dispute remains unresolved, the Embassy official shall refer the matter to the appropriate Labour authorities of the host country for adjudication without prejudice to whatever legal action the aggrieved party may take against the other.

14. Special Provisions:
   a. The employer shall, within two days of the arrival of the worker allow the latter to advise the nearest Philippine Embassy/Consulate of his/her arrival.
b. The employer shall allow the Philippine Labor Official or appropriate Philippine Embassy staff regular visitation of the worker at the employer's residence. Any change in address/workplace of the worker shall be duly reported to the Philippine Embassy/Consulate.

c. The employer shall treat the worker in a just and humane manner. In no case shall physical violence be used upon the worker.

d. The worker shall work solely for the Employer and his immediate household. The employer shall in no case require the worker to work in another residence or be assigned in any commercial, industrial or agricultural enterprise.

e. It shall be unlawful to deduct any amount from the regular salary of the worker.

f. The employer shall provide the worker a copy of this employment contract duly verified/processed by POEA.

15. No provisions of this contract shall be altered, amended or substituted without the written approval of the Philippine Embassy or POEA.

16. Other terms and conditions of employment shall be governed by the pertinent laws of the Philippines or the host country. Any applicable provisions on labor and employment of the host country are hereby incorporated as part of this contract.

In witness thereof, we hereby sign this contract this
