MEMORANDUM

TO : All POEA Officials and Employees

DATE : May 15, 2001

SUBJECT : Migrant Workers Day Theme Writing Contest

June 7, 2001 is scheduled as our celebration of MIGRANT WORKERS’ DAY.

This year’s event highlights the role of our overseas workers in the global labor forces, acknowledges our national pride in their talents, skills and fields of expertise, as well as recognizes their immeasurable contribution to our economic stability and growth. Once again, the POEA is launching a theme writing contest to underscore these three major contributions of our migrant workers' globally skilled partner and contributor to our economy.

Please be reminded that based on our last year’s theme, the winning theme was, “Migranteng Pinoy: Kabalikat sa Pag-angat sa 2000.”

These are the guidelines for our contest:

1. The contest is open to all personnel.
2. The theme written in English or in Filipino can be in prose or poetry form; i.e., declarative statement or in verse.
3. There is no limit to the number of words in the theme; there is no limit to the number of entries anyone may wish to submit.
4. Each entry must be placed in a sealed envelope and must include the full name and department/division/unit of the theme writer.
6. All entries will be opened on May 29, 2001, by the Contest Committee.
7. A cash prize of One Thousand (P1,000.00) Pesos will be awarded to the writer/sender of the winning theme.
8. The decision of the Contest Committee is final.
9. Announcement and awarding of the cash prize to the winner will be made during the Variety Show/Cultural program.

ROSALINDA DIMAPILIS SALDOZ
Administrator