They are now authorized to act as alternate Resource Persons in the conduct of in-house Pre-Departure Orientation Seminars (PDOS) for direct-hired workers and government hires, including EPS-Korea bound workers, as well as Pre-Employment Orientation Seminars (PEOS) in schools and other entities for the year 2009.

They shall also be entitled to honoraria amounting to Two Hundred Pesos (P200.00) per session, but not exceeding the maximum cumulative honoraria payment in the amount of One Thousand Two Hundred Pesos (P1,200.00) per month pursuant to DBM National Compensation Circular No. 75 of 1995. Payment shall be charged from the PDOS Trust Fund, subject to fund availability and the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

It is emphasized that their assignment as alternate resource speakers shall not affect the performance of their duties and responsibilities in their respective units.

For compliance.
